*My son do not forget my law but let your heart keep my commands;
for length of days and long life and peace they will add to you.
Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart, and so find favor and high esteem in the sight of God and man.*

Proverbs 3:1-4

*Be diligent to present yourself approved to God,
a worker who does not need to be ashamed,
rightly dividing the word of truth.*

2 Timothy 2:15

The Daily Bible Reading Journal is designed to be a tool to help you read and internalize every precious word of God. Its unique schedule highlights the annual Biblical events at the time of the year they would have been practiced. This, combined with the addition of journaling each chapter in the entire Bible, is a wonderful method for reading the Scriptures and embedding them in your heart and mind.

While the New King James Version is used in the page titles and quotes throughout this program, you are encouraged to choose the translation of the Bible that best suits your understanding and/or pursuit.

May the LORD bless you, and may you grow in the grace and knowledge of God as you read His words each day.

Table of Contents

This Bible reading program is unique in that it strives for a flow of thought and context while accenting timely Biblical teachings, important Biblical events and the Biblical Feasts of the LORD. Scheduled to coincide with the Torah Portions each Sabbath and the rest of the Bible on the remaining days of the week, the Daily Bible Reading Journal will cover the entire Bible over the course of a year.

The Torah Portions read each Sabbath. The first five books of the Bible are known as the Torah. The Torah is traditionally divided into 54 portions and is read each Sabbath over the course of a year, beginning just after Sukkot (also known as the Feast of Tabernacles). You can learn more about the Weekly Torah Portions and special readings by going to the My Jewish Learning website:

Be Strong and of Good Courage

Joshua 1:6-7 “Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. ⁷ Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go.”

And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. ³ Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. ⁴ And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. Without a Parable He Did Not Speak to Them

Mark 4:30-34 Then He said, “To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we picture it? ³¹ It is like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth; ³² but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade.” ³³ And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it. ³⁴ But without a parable He did not speak to them.

2 Corinthians 11-13

My Grace Is Sufficient for You

2 Corinthians 12:7-9 And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure. ⁸ Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. ⁹ And He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

I Know That Whatever God Does, It Shall Be Forever

Sukkot/Feast of Tabernacles – Day Three

Ecclesiastes 3:12-15 I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, ¹³ and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—it is the gift of God. ¹⁴ I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, and nothing taken from it. God does it, that men should fear before Him.

This Is the Gift of God

Sukkot/Feast of Tabernacles – Day Four

Ecclesiastes 5:18-20 Here is what I have seen: It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; for it is his heritage. ¹⁹ As for every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his heritage and rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God.

Consider the Work of God

Sukkot/Feast of Tabernacles – Day Five

Ecclesiastes 7:13-14 Consider the work of God; for who can make straight what He has made crooked? ¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: surely God has appointed the one as well as the other, so that man can find out nothing that will come after him.

Sukkot/Feast of Tabernacles – Day Six

Ecclesiastes 9:9-10 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity; for that is your portion in life, and in the labor which you perform under the sun. ¹⁰ Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

Fear God and Keep His Commandments

Sukkot/Feast of Tabernacles – Day Seven

Deuteronomy 33:1-3 Now this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. ² And he said: “The LORD came from Sinai, and dawned on them from Seir; He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came with ten thousands of saints; from His right hand came a fiery law for them. ³ Yes, He loves the people; all His saints are in Your hand; they sit down at Your feet; everyone receives Your words.”
